SECTION 1. The City of Overbrook, Kansas, by first duly sworn on oath, states that he is publisher of SECTION 2. A regular city election shall be held on the first Tuesday in April of each odd numbered year. At the regular city election in 1978 there shall be elected a mayor and five councilmen. At said election the candidates for councilmen receiving the three highest number of votes shall be declared elected for a term of four years. The candidates for councilmen receiving the next two highest number of votes shall be declared elected for a term of two years. The candidate elected mayor shall be declared elected for a term of two years. Succeeding elections for all such offices shall be for four year terms. At such succeeding elections the candidates for councilmen receiving the best of three (3) the case may be) highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Whenever there is a tie between two or more candidates for a particular office, the winner shall be determined by lot by the board of canvassers. The city clerk shall, within five days after the canvass of the returns and determination by the board of canvassers of the persons elected, deliver to each such person a certificate of election, signed by the city clerk and the board of canvassers.
SECTION 3. The terms of the officers of the council shall begin on the first day of April following their election in April and they shall qualify by taking the oath of office and otherwise, if there be other qualifications prescribed, at any time after receiving notice of election and before or at the beginning of said meeting. If any person elected to the office of councilman does not qualify within the required time, he shall be deemed to have refused to accept the office and a vacancy shall exist. In case of a vacancy in the office of councilman occurring by reason of failure or refusal to qualify, resignation, death, removal from the city, removal from office, or becoming mayor, by reason of being president of the council when a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor, the mayor shall appoint, with the consent of a majority of the remaining councilmen, a responsible elector of the city to fill the vacancy until the expiration of the term of such office. In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor occurring by reason of resignation, death, removal from office, or removal from the city, or refusal or failure to qualify, the president of the council shall become mayor, until the expiration of the term of said vacancy in the office of mayor.
SECTION 4. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage.
