Overbrook Police Department

Don't Be Afraid To Call

With cold weather comes the possibility of icy roads, the Police Department also encourages drivers to keep an emergency kit in their vehicle and allow extra time for travel. Police officers also offer jump starts for dead batteries in cold weather. Please call (785) 665-7230.

Heading out of town?

The Police Department is happy to swing by your house and keep an extra eye on things while you're away. If you'd like this service, just stop by City Hall or the Police Station to fill out a quick form before your trip.

Overbrook Maintenance

Just a reminder, in case of snow, vehicles along the street will need to be moved so the snowplows can get the roads clear.

Overbrook City Hall

Time to renew your pet tags! Ordinance 408 requires all pets over the age of 6 months to have a pet license. Please bring proof of vaccination when applying for a license. Licenses run from Jan 1st to Dec. 31st. Pet License Form Attached.

Friends of the Library

The library is accepting gently used books for the annual book sale in July 2026. They are now accepting new and renewal memberships for 2026, the form is available at the library.

USD 434 School District

Continuing conversations on USD 434 configuration will take place at the board meeting.

For more information the school board meets the Second Tuesday of each month at 6:00pm at Scranton Attendance Center.

Overbrook Pride

☀️ Want to make Overbrook even more awesome? ☀️

Love community projects like the parade, planting flowers, or 4th of July fun? Looking for a lively, welcoming group of people to hang out with while making a difference?

🎉 Come join Overbrook PRIDE, Inc.! 🎉

We're a friendly crew dedicated to brightening up our town—one project, event, and laugh at a time.

📅 We meet the 3rd Saturday of every month

Bring your ideas, your energy, and your love for Overbrook—we can't wait to meet you!

Overbrook Historical Society

Historical Society - The beloved Speaker Series is back for 2026—thanks to renewed funding—and it's shaping up to be a fantastic year! 🎉

Be sure to follow our Facebook page Overbrook Historical Society to stay in the loop on all the fascinating speakers headed our way.

We kicked off the year with a bang as Bob Hug took the stage and wowed everyone with an incredible presentation of historic Overbrook photographs. It was the perfect start to the 2026 Speaker Series—and there's plenty more to come!

Stay tuned... the past has never been this much fun!

Overbrook Parks and Recreation

Gymnasium Update & Facility Use Agreement

As renovations to the gymnasium are completed, OPR will introduce a new facility use agreement for all participants. We're excited to welcome the community into this updated facility! To reserve the gymnasium, schedule activities, or share ideas for programs you'd like to see offered, please contact us at 785-219-9060 or OPR@overbrookks.com.

- OPR is scheduled to host basketball games on February 7, 14, and 15 at the Overbrook Attendance Center. All games are expected to conclude by 2:00 p.m.
- Baseball / Softball / Tee Ball Registration forms will be released on February 11, 2026. Please watch for details coming soon. Games are anticipated to run from mid-May through late June. We look forward to another fun and successful season with our youth athletes!
