What to know, What to do

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

IdentityTheft.gov

Is someone using your personal or financial information to make purchases, get benefits, file taxes, or commit fraud? That's identity theft.

Visit IdentityTheft.gov to report identity theft and get a personal recovery plan.

The site provides detailed advice to help you fix problems caused by identity theft, along with the ability to:

- get a personal recovery plan that walks you through each step
- update your plan and track your progress
- print pre-filled letters and forms to send to credit bureaus, businesses, and debt collectors

Go to IdentityTheft.gov and click “Get Started.”

There's detailed advice for tax, medical, and child identity theft – plus over thirty other types of identity theft. No matter what type of identity theft you've experienced, the next page tells you what to do right away. You'll find these steps – and a whole lot more – at IdentityTheft.gov.

What To Do Right Away

Step 1: Call the companies where you know fraud occurred.

- ☐ Call the fraud department. Explain that someone stole your identity. Ask them to close or freeze the accounts. Then, no one can add new charges unless you agree.

- ☐ Change logins, passwords, and PINs for your accounts.

Step 2: Place a fraud alert and get your credit reports.

- ☐ To place a fraud alert, contact one of the three credit bureaus. That company must tell the other two.

- Experian.com/fraudalert
1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion.com/fraud
1-800-680-7289
- Equifax.com/CreditReportAssistance
1-888-766-0008

A fraud alert is free. It will make it harder for someone to open new accounts in your name.

- ☐ Get your free credit reports from Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. Go to annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.

- ☐ Review your reports. Make note of any account or transaction you don't recognize. This will help you report the theft to the FTC and the police.

Step 3: Report identity theft to the FTC.

- ☐ Go to IdentityTheft.gov, and include as many details as possible.

Based on the information you enter, IdentityTheft.gov will create your Identity Theft Report and recovery plan.
